

European Security and Defence Assembly Assembly of Western European Union

Fifty-ninth Plenary Session - Press Release No. 57/2010

Rekindling of the flame: in remembrance of all European soldiers and civilians who lost their lives on military operations in 2010

Paris, 3 December 2010 – The President of the European Security and Defence Assembly, Robert WALTER MP (United Kingdom, Federated Group), Armand DE DECKER, Honorary President of the Assembly and Claude-France ARNOULD, Deputy Director General of the Crisis Management and Planning Directorate (CMPD), Council of the EU, representing Baroness Catherine ASHTON, EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy and Vice-President of the European Commission, presided over the ceremony for the rekindling of the Flame of Remembrance at the Arc de Triomphe in Paris on Tuesday 30 November at 18.30.

The ceremony was dedicated to the European men and women, both soldiers and civilians, who have lost their lives during operations in 2010 – more than 250 to date. The roll of honour is at annex and can be found on the Assembly website.

In the presence of parliamentarians who had come from all over Europe to attend the Assembly's plenary session, as well as of diplomats and high-ranking military officers, Mr WALTER laid a wreath on the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.
